Definitions

“Number of Students Who Began Program” means the number of students who began the program who are scheduled to complete the program within the reporting calendar year, and includes all the students who remained enrolled after their cancellation period.

“Students available for graduation” means the cohort population minus the number of students unavailable for graduation.

“Cohort population” means the number of students that began a program on a cohort start date.

“Cohort start date” means the first class day after the cancellation period during which a cohort of students attends class for a specific program.

“Graduates” is the number of students who completed the program within 100% of the published program length.

“Completion Rate” is the number of Graduates divided by the Number of Students Available for Graduation.

“Graduates available for employment” means the number of graduates minus the number of graduates unavailable for employment.

“Graduates unavailable for employment” means the graduates who, after graduation, die, become incarcerated, are called to active military duty, are international students that leave the United States or do not have a visa allowing employment in the United States, or are continuing their education in an accredited or bureau-approved postsecondary institution.

“Graduates employed in the field” means graduates who are gainfully employed in a single position for which the institution represents the program prepares its graduates within six months after a student completes the applicable educational program. For occupations for which the state requires passing an examination, the period of employment must begin within six months of the announcement of the examination results for the first examination available after a student completes an applicable educational program.

“Job Placement Rate” is calculated by dividing the number of graduates employed in the field by the number of graduates available for employment.

Salary is as reported by the student. Not all graduates report salary. A list of the employers of the Graduates Employed in the Field can be obtained from <http://www.bls.gov/oes>.
